«Boston» A letter transmitting petitions for the abolition of Slavery in the Dist. of Columbia and denying admittance to the Union to states whose constitutions allow Slavery. The writers present legal arguments in favor of the petitions. Claims that it is dishonorable for the nation to allow Slavery in its capital. Urges the use of his personal influence to back up the petition. Wants R. C.'s opinion on what ought to be done about Slavery in the Dist. of Columbia. The writer wants the petition referred to a special committee.

1844 Oct 2 Ainsworth, William Harrison.

To George P.R. James ?

[Kensal Manor House, London.] Is grateful for the suggestions which his friend made in his last letter. Doubts if he can ever create a nicely-drawn character. Must finish St. James within the month, and will send him a copy as soon as it is done. Asks permission to inscribe the work to him, if he will accept the dedication. Hopes that his Collected Works will sell well. Expresses his appreciation of the hospitality which he enjoyed while visiting at his friend's home. A.L.S. 4p. 7 x 4 1/4 in.

Kingsdown, Bristol, England. The writer is sending the Address on Slavery from the English Unitarian clergy to the American Unitarian clergy by James Cannings Fuller. He comments on the fact that some of the English ministers did not sign the Address because of unfamiliarity with the subject or unwillingness to act as admonishers. Suggests a continuing correspondence which could be published occasionally in church periodicals. Proposes a union of the American and English Unitarian churches. Mentions the volume of Mr.Artois' sermons which he is bringing out.

8 v. 8°.

Ca 1850's 19th c.

Each of these volumes is composed of a continuous sheet of paper, on which are represented sketches made and colored by hand, forming a panorama of the road and its surroundings from Tokie to Nikko. With the exception of the houses and trees, these scenes give a tolerable idea of the appearance of the region. At intervals are to be noticed circular pieces of gilt. The largest signifies

[Written from?] The enclosed letter shows the writer to be a curiosity. He might be told that the information relative to the olives and to Gadsden was appreciated. His remarks on the gunboats proved valuable also. Mr.Chambers, the Choctaw factor has some good ideas on establishment of factories for the Indians. A.L. 1p. 9 1/2 x 7 1/2 in.

1739 Sep 17 Belcher, Jonathan, 1681-1757.

To (Richard) Waldron, His Majesty's Province, New Hampshire.

[Boston.] The tinker has been to him with the packet. Refused to sign it because of his understanding of the King's order. Told him that he supposed James Jefsay(?) could not be trusted. Moved the tinker's mettle. If Huske should apply for adjourning the court, he should be glad; is not ready to trust any interest in the Admiralty Court. A.L.S. 3p. 9 x 7 1/4 in.

[Cork, Ireland] The addressee's letter was read to the Anti-Slavery society, whose members were delighted "to find the articles were so much liked." The National Anti-Slavery Standard is much read, but the Liberator and Herald of Freedom "were thought rather terrible." For a long time, the writer, too, did not enjoy them, "but now that we know Mr. [Nathaniel P.] Rogers's character, he could not do anything which would make us angry with him." They are glad to send things to his wife's bazaar as well as to the Concord Abolitionists. Anxious for news of Garrison's recovery, the writer sends the message that he has admiring fr[illegible]s in Cork. C. L.
